

Society of American Archivists
Council Meeting
January 23 – 26, 2014
Chicago, Illinois

Discussion: Council Exemplary Service
Award and Council Resolutions
(Prepared by Nancy Beaumont)

BACKGROUND

The Council Exemplary Service Award was created in 1980, at the request of the Committee on the Selection of SAA Fellows, to recognize a special contribution to the archives profession (and especially to SAA) that is not eligible for one of the other awards given by the Society. It is given on an occasional basis at the discretion of the Council or upon recommendation to the Council by the Awards Committee. In recent years the Council Exemplary Service Award has been given at the SAA Awards Ceremony.

Council Resolutions periodically are developed to acknowledge the contributions of individuals to the Society or the archives community. Council resolutions typically are printed on certificate paper and either sent to individuals following a phone call from the President or presented at a Council meeting at which the individual is in attendance. In recent years, Council resolutions have been presented at the SAA Awards Ceremony.

DISCUSSION

An important function of most professional associations is to motivate and reward members and supporters by providing professional recognition. For an awards program to serve as a motivator and reward, it is important to ensure that – each year – individuals and organizations that have made a significant contribution to the profession or the association are singled out for recognition.

The purpose of this discussion item on the January 2014 agenda is to provide an opportunity for Council members to consider for the Council Exemplary Service Award or a Council resolution individuals and/or organizations whose efforts are worthy but may not be recognized in 2014 via the Awards Program. For both types of recognition the Council itself selects the awardee(s).

Typically the Council has discussed at its winter meeting who may be worthy of recognition and has assigned to one or more Council members the task of preparing a nomination for consideration by the Council at its spring meeting.

DISCUSSION QUESTION:

Which individuals and organizations have distinguished themselves in 2013-2014 or over time and should be considered for a Council Exemplary Service Award?

“Straw man” motions are provided below to stimulate Council discussion of potential recipients.
