

August 31, 2001. SAA LAR meeting in Washington, DC.

- 1. Roundtable chair Dan Golodner opened the meeting with a commemoration of Debra Bernhardt, who passed away on March 22, 2001. Debra was a trade union historian and the director of the Robert F. Wagner Labor Archives at New York University. Roundtable members shared their memories of her, and recalled her tenacious commitment, generosity, and warm friendship.
- 2. Karyl Winn from the University of Washington gave a slide presentation of the WTO History Project Website, a collaborative project between the Center of Labor Studies, the archives, and the community.
- 3. LAR members shared news about their shops and discussed initiatives for the coming year. They approved to update and place online the directory of the Labor Archives Roundtable, which had been originally prepared by Debra Bernhardt and Brenda Parnes. Patrizia Sione volunteered for office and was elected chair. No vice-chair was elected.
